Career building through:

Education • Networking • Leadership development • Information

New York Young Insurance Professionals is

... an organization dedicated to building tomorrow's insurance leaders today. Through a variety of mediums, from education to networking to leadership development, we are committed to the success of industry newcomers and seasoned professionals alike. If you are searching for an association to help you take your career to the next level, join us ... you won't be disappointed.

Our EDUCATION programs are designed to help attendees develop and perfect the professional skills required to succeed in the insurance industry. We focus on enhancing industry knowledge and professional motivation; plus developing communication and leadership skills. We craft our programs with volunteer input to ensure we are adapting to the ever-changing needs and tastes of our membership. From our Fundamentals of Insurance certificate program to our roundtable discussions, interactive executive panels and continuing-education credit seminars, we have something for all young professionals looking to excel.

Our NETWORKING opportunities simply are unrivaled. The YIP Online Membership Directory makes all YIP members just a mouse-click away, providing information and specifics regarding colleagues from New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Our receptions, golf outings, annual conference events and community activities give our members multiple opportunities to forge and cement industry contacts while becoming part of a powerful collective force that advocates young professional issues at all levels.

Our LEADERSHIP positions throughout the organization—from committee member and chair to director and officer—give YIP members the chance to experience leadership first-hand. By participating in professional meetings, delivering reports and representing the organization to industry colleagues and the greater community, YIP members build exceptional skills and enhance their professional profile.

INFORMATION keeps our members up-to-date on industry developments and the news that matters to them. Our quarterly newsletters are packed with industry and association news, event wrap-ups, photos, member and sponsor spotlights, and so much more. Our affiliation with the Professional Insurance Agents also gives YIP members the opportunities to learn about and take part in the legislative process—both at the local and national levels.
